The Right

shaving angle comfort in a

PRESTON BROS,
SMITH'S PHARMACY,
EATON CHASE CO.,
LEE & OSGOOD,
UTLEY & JONES,
H. M. LEROU,
C. C. TREAT,
JAMES C. MARA,
WM. D. SICKER,
WM. D. SICKER,
WM. D. SICKER,

in Canada al

Additional

Blades 50c forpackaga

Inc., Manhasset Mfg. Co. vs. Alcott D. Sayles, Jacob Alpert et al. vs. Nazaire Peloquia, Francis J. Hates & Son vs. M.

Tool Co., Ralph P. Robinson vs. J.

Thomas R. Rhodes vs. Mary Rhodes, Paul Tatrault vs. Bertha Tatrault.

vs. Marie T. Wagner, Leonie LeBianc vs.

tual Insurance Co. vs. Napoleon Muire, Warren Worth vs. Daniel P. Dunn et al.,

Uncontested Divorces: Antoine Wagner

Note the flat

EVERY farmer knows that a scythe blade must lie flat in order to do clean work. This is equally true of a razor blade. The perfect design of the Durham-Duplex compels you to hold the blade in the correct flat position. It automatically lies on the face at the right shaving angle-no chance to scrape or burn! There's a lifetime of shaving-

Safe Razor

FOR SALE BY THESE LEADING DEALERS:

Franklin Sq. 205 Main St. 129 Main St. 129-135 Main St.

NORWICH BULLETIN
WILLIANTIO OFFICE
Telephone 96

28 Chuesh 59

Whas is Galey Ch. Taulato
Orevenitor and the control of the con and not bothered to see or inquire about. During their engagement, which was for five months, he told her he was sole boss

Dr. F. C. Jackson DENTIST

715 Main Street, Willimantic Hours-9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Phone 44

JAY M. SHEPARD Succeeding Filmore & Shepard

Funeral Director & Embalmer 50-62 NORTH ST. WILLIMANTIC Lady Assistant. Tel. Connection

Killourey Bros. FUNERAL DIRECTORS AND

EMBALMERS Willimantic, Conn

Horace Roed testified that his brother could not support his wife, and that Alfred was absolutely dependent upon witness. L. P. Oehrig of Windham Center testified that a fair rental value of the place would be about $360 a year. Charles L. Smith. a farmer of Windham Center, testified to the same fact. Mrs. Florence Hood, wife of Horace Rood, was called hut her evidence was not needed. James Potter of Windham Center said $400 a year rental was about right. Judge Otto L. Robinson, judge of probate for Windham certified to the accuracy of the will and other papers in his possession. No trustees account has ever been filed, and no trustee has been confirmed. Mrs. Elisha Palmer of Windham Center gave eridence that Alfred had run mowing machines, cut and chopped wood and carried it into the bouse. He had also handled money and had pald her for work her son had done at the Rood flace. She admitted having had Alfred arrested. Theron Palmer of Windham Center testifials was how the papers for the sale of the property and who holds a portion of the Theron Palmer of Windham Center testifials was no with the case is retarnable be and who holds a portion of the Theron Palmer of Windham Center testifials was a wind the papers for the sale of the property, and who holds a portion of the Theron Palmer of Windham Center testifials was nown. handled money and had paid her for work her son had done at the Rood flace. She admitted having had Alfred Errested. Theron Palmer of Windham Center testified to seeing Alfred run the mowing machine, milk and aid at wood carrying. George Potter of Windham Center told of seeing Alfred drive the bus. John Lynch, also of Windham, who had worked at the Rood place, testified that Alfred could do many things about the farm. Mrs. Alfred Martin of Willimantic, matron at The Eims, told of Alfred's coming there at week ends to take Mrs. Rood home. Once when at the farm she saw him harness the horses and hitch them to the wagon.

Alfred Rood, recalled to the stand, stated that he did not harness the horses that day: they were left in the barn all Affred Rood, recalled to the stand, stated that he did not harness the horses that day; they were left in the barn all harnessed. They were left that way every day. Mrs. Horace Rood denied asking Alfred for money. She admitted asking for treats once in a while, for ice urt adjourned at 5 o'clock until this (Thursday) morning at 10 o'clock. Constable Thomas Killourey of this city served subpoenas Tuesday on three Conantville residents for witnesses in the divorce case of Leroy Walker vs. Lena Walker, to be tried in the Tolland county hospital following the automobile accident on West Main street Sunday night are recovering. Peter Gouneck, who has were held Wednesday afternon at 2 o'clock at the home of William H. Phillips, No. 1519 West Main street, Rev. Arthur Carpenter officiating. Burial was in Willimantic cemetery, in charge of Jay atry, died Tuesday night at St. Joseph's tospital following several months illness, fe was born in Kingston, R. L. Oct. 1, 348, the son of John and Orilla Hopkina luminer. He was a former the Gardner. He was a farmer. He is survived by a brother, Henry Gardner, of Derry, N. H. a niece, Miss Stella Gardner,

The funeral of Michael Casey was held Wednesday morning at $.30 o'clock at his home, No. 44 Elm street. Requiem high mass at St. Joseph's church at 2 o'clock was sung by Rev. John E. Clark. Mrs. A. W. Turner was at the organ, and at the offertory Do Profundis was sung by Mrs. Henry Mathieu. For a waiting city. Burnal was in St. Joseph's cometury. Killourey Broa being in charge of the arrangements.

Robert Fitzgerald, colored, was arrested was before the court charged with vagrancy. He was given a four months' sentence, indemnal hales to the police station for the night. He will appear in court this (Thursday) morning. Early in the week Fitzgerald was before the court charged with vagrancy. He was given a four months' sentence, indemnal hales a four months' sentence, indemnal hales.

had served three months previous to this on a similar charge, and also served one and Frederick E. Wilcox et ux., Emily J. Ross, excx., appeal from commissioners, this Emma M. Wainwright vs. Judson A. Wainwright, Henry L. Spaulding vs. Charles Danscreau. Stuly Saymanski vs. Alexander Kaletchitz, Grace Tollefsen vs. John Paine, St. Joseph's hospital vs. Francisco Valerio, George E. Nichols vs. John G. Lewis, Louis Wolfe vs. Lame Construction Co., Hymen Rosenberg vs. Herman J. Pragg et al., Oliver F. Downs

LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep Sented Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poisen Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.
Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to every rhaumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhu, the sure conqueror of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and, do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatisd, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed Lee & Osgood to guarantee it in efery instance.

P. Waldo Marvin judge, will call the focket in said court and discontinue or otherwise dispose of such untried cases thereon as have been pending one year
and cases in which there is default of appearance unless cause is shown for the continuance of such cases
thereon as have been pending one year
and cases in which there is default of
appearance unless cause is shown for the
continuance of such cases
thereon as have been pending one year
and cases in which there is default of
appearance unless cause is shown for the continuance of such curses.

By order of the court.

EDGAR M. WARNER, Clerk.

Five hundred high school girls of Modesto, Cal., have voted to wear uniforms as part of a campaign for simple and inexpensive attire.

19 o'clock a. m., at the superior court room in Willimantic, the court, Hon. L. P. Waldo Marvin judge, will call the Calling of the Docket.

Mempers of the Bar: Take notice that on Friday, June 3, at Putnam, Conn., May 24, 1921.

BURT'S PHARMACY, JAMES F. DONOHUE, Rexall Store CHANDLER & MORSE, Hardware,

The Durham-Duplex

blade lies flat on the face

UTLEY & JONES,
H. M. LERGU,
C. C. TREAT,
COMPLETE JAMES C. MARA,
WM. D. RICKER,
Double-edged The UNITED CIGAR STORES.
Rades FRANK A. SISK,
GEO. P. MADDEN,
GEO M. J. LYNCH. A. GILMAND CO.,
F. X. LUCIER, Jeweler,
GEORGE E. SHAW, Jeweler,
THE PUTNAM HARDWARE AND MILL SUPPLY CORP.,

WILLIMANTIC BAY STATE DRUG CO., CURRAN & PLYNN, WILSON DRUG CO., J. W. LAYALLE & CO. J. J. HICKEY DRUG CO., THE BERTHIAUME PHARMACY, BURROUGHS DRUG STORE,
WOODWARD'S DRUG STORE,
N. A. JORDAN, Hardware,
E. H. KEACH & CO., Hardware,
L. J. MORIN PHARMACY
W, E. LABELLE, Pharmacist, Dayville CHARLES De VILLERS, THE JORDAN HARDWARE CO. JOSEPH De MARCHI G. H. ALFORD & SON J. J. HICKEY DRUG CO.

DISTRIBUTING JOBBERS : LEE & OSGOOD COMPANY

Get One—Today DURHAM-DUPLEX RAZOR CO.

Jersey City, New Jersey Factories Jersey City, U.S.A. Paris, France. Sales Representatives in all Countries

JEWETT CITY

DANIELSON

Wreaths for Memorial Day are to be nade at the town hall Friday afternoon it one o'clock. This means that every

Miss Bessis McCluggage is in Backus hospital, Norwich, where she must undersky, Corinne Rosseau, Mrs. Fred St. go an operation. Miss McCluggage, who is night operator at the telephone expenses fall on the state of Stanwood Menken, Alexandra W. Golem-blowski vs. Boleriay Golembiowski, Hy-men Seplovitz vs. Henry W. Chamberlin,

These who attended the King's Daughters' county conveition in Greeneville Wednesday were Mrs. G. H. Prior. Mrs. dafter a reent serious illness. C. F. Gardner, Mrs. Augusta Ray, Mrs. W. J. Babcock, Miss Ida J. Foster, Miss M. A. Burdick, Mrs. Sarah Tracy and George LeBlanc.

Trial List: To Jury—Automobile MuMra E. H. Hist)x.

morning. Early in the week Fitzgerald Clarence A. Hawkins, Josephine Shen vs. was before the court charged with va-defined the court charged with va-stancy. He was given a four months' thur J. McIntyre, Mary F. Francsi vs. have been sent by Richmond P. Gardner he was told to leave Willimantic. He Ross, excx., appeal from commissioners, is one of the basses in the chorus The issioners, is one of the basses in the chorus. The May festival series from 1894 to 1921. choral union and extra concert series. The activity of the University Musical society is by no means carried by this list. The 1225 programs included in the vari-Joh nG. Lewis, Louis Wolfe vs. Lame out concert series cover well night the en-Construction Co., Hymen Rosenberg vs. tire field for ensemble and solo music. Herman J. Pragg et al., Oliver F. Downs Many important ensemble works were Assignments: To Jury—First Thursday, May 26, Thomas Mara vs. George Rood; second Thursday, May 26, Ovila Martin vs. Max Wolinsky.

The following notice has been sent out:

Many important ensemble works were given Their first hearing in this country in these concerts. A reasonably conservation estimate of the number of servation estimate of the number of works performed at these concerts would place them at 10,000. These added to the choral union total would give considerably more than 12,000 works heard dur-ing this period.

MONTVILLE

Last week Wednesday at her heme in Pequot, Miss Nellie Broulliard entertain-P. Waldo Marvin judge, will call the docket in said court and discontinue or otherwise dispose of such untried cases thereon as have been pending one year and cases in which there is default of appearance unless cause is shown for the continuance of such cases.

By order of the court.

Margaret McDermott at the piano. selection of victrola records were rendered. The hostess served ice cream, cake, The hostess served see cream, case of the hostess served are the control of the hostess served are the control of the hostess served are control of the hostess served are the control of the hostess served are c is night operator at the telephone exchange, fell on an key sidewalk last winter and as a result was in hed for weeks. She has numberless friends who are exceedingly sorry to learn of this added misfortune.

William McManon of Nowlan, are E. Curtin, Mrs. Michael O'Meara of Baltimore, Mrs. C. E. laherty. Mrs. J. L. Phillips, Mrs. Ernest Bermachets of New London, Miss Madeline Walsh, Miss Aladded misfortune.

About seventy-five relatives and friends witnesses the wedding ceremony at the home of Jarvis Street in Palmertown Mrs. E. H. Histix.

At a recent meeting of the Ladtes' Aid Prescott and Albert T. Babcock were society of the Methodist church, Mrs. I., united in marriage by Rev. E. P. Ayer, tional church.

The bride was attired in white satin trimmed with silver lace. She were a veil caught with lily-of-the-valley and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and lily of the valley. Her attendants this week. They have given satisfactory shows especially that which took Irene Rogoff who were similarly gowned Irene Rogost who were similarly gowned in yellow organdle, trimmed in blue, with picture hats to match, and bouquets of pink rossa. Miss Marian Street, the small sister of the bride was flower girl. She wore pink organdle and carried a basket of roses and lilies. Master Richard Mrs. A. H. Gallup, who were entermed to the similar of the bride was secompanied by Mrs. Gates and Mrs. Gates of the bride was flower girl.

She wore pink organdle and carried a basket of roses and lilies. Master Richard Shaffer was ring-bearer.

The groom was attended by Harry Rogers. The bride was given in marriage by her father, William Street, of Waterford, Louis Gero played the woddler, was been supported by the condition of the community was been supported by the condition of the community was been supported by the condition of the community was been supported by the condition of the community was been supported by the condition of the condition of the community was been supported by the condition of the condi ding march. The ceremony was per-formed under an arch of foliage and white flowers, from which was suspended a large bell of white flowers. The bride received many gifts including cut glass, silver and linen. Following the reception after the wedding Mr. and Mrz. Babcock left for Norwich where they have taken apartments. The groom is employed in Thamesville.

The semi-weekly picture shows which have been shown by the Robertson Paper Co. in Paimertown for the past few years will be discontinued after the last of the present month. Raymond Shehan of Greeneville was recent caller in Palm Misses Lillian M Sawyer and Grace M. Wood attended the nurses' bunquet at the Mohican hotel in New London recently. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Curtin has been named William.

Capt. Al Kingsley of the barge Em pire has been a business caller in town the past few days Capt. Kingsley has recently been promoted from first mate. The Connecticut Construction and En-gineering Co. has mon at work driving splies along the river front at Uncasville

What Is Going On Tonight Norwich Stationary Engineers' Association, No. 6, meets in Carpenters' Hall Ladies' Auxiliary, No. 54, A. O. H., meets in Inclumptain Memorial.

Palmyra Encampment, No. 3, L. O. O. F., meets in Odd F. ikws' Hall.

Lafayette Council, No. 207, L.U. St. 3. B. of A. meets at 25 Shetueset Street.

Women of Mooseheart Legen, No. 124, meet in Moose Home

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Social in Parish Hall. Class of 24 members K. of C., are giving a social in Parish hall, Taftville. Friday evening. See adv.

Sale of West Thames St. Land. James L. Case has sold to Charles T. Rathbun the building lot known as No. 157 West Thames street, about 60x166 feet in size Mr. Rathbun will build a modern cottage house on the premises at

Remember Finnders Field The women of R. O. Pietcher auxiliary of the American Legion as arranging to have the poppies for Memorial Day on sale new at the post office, the Bos-ton store, Porteous and Mitchell's, the Wauregan House and the thestres. Mrs. J. W. Hourian is chairman of the com-mittee, which is desirous that everyone should wear a poppy on Memorial Day Davis Theatre.

Monte Blue, the big westerner who made a distinct success recently in the Cecil De Mille production of "Something to Think About," has probably the strongest role in his screen career in the Charles Maigne production of The Kentuckians," the well known John Fox, Jr., novel, which comes to the Devis the Kentuckians," the well known John Fox, Jr., novel, which comes to the Davis theater Friday and Saturday next. He enacts the role of Boone Stallard, a Kentucky mountaineer, who goes to the legislature with the ambiton of winning emancipation for his fellowmen.

No sconer does he attend a session of the legislature than he has a clash with Randolph Marshall, a Kentucky aristocrat, who yows that the sion of the lexislature than he has a clash with Randolph Marshall, a Kentucky aristocrat, who vows that the only way to get order into the mountainous regious is to disrupt the mountainous regious is to disrupt the mountaineers' country. A feud in the mountaineers' country. A feud in the mountains causes Stallard to fice to his poople and he demonstrates successfully that he can rule them. When he returns to Frankfort, planning to ask the hand of the governor's daughter in marriage, he is brought to a sudden realization of the difference between the mountaineers and the Blue Grass people and refrains from any such step and the picture closes with the assumption that Marshall wins the girl.

The second feature is the latest Allar Dwan production, "In the Heart of a Fool." Reports from those who have seen this picture indicates that it is one of the best Mr. Dwan has ever produced. And its attractiveness is further enhanced by an unusually brilliant cast enhanced by an unusually brilliant east of screen favorites. In securing its varlous characters the author has gone into the lives of ordinary people—the kind that all of us come in daily con-tact with—and his suveloped them in a series of dramatic events that go to make the picture one of the most thrilling Mr. Dwan has ever produced, Larry Seamon in "The Bakery," his latest and best comedy will also be Strand.

The management of the Strand has secured four all comedy star vaude-ville acts for today, Friday and Saturday. This will give the patrons a chance to see something different from that which they have been seeing. The first on the programme is Helen Miller, the Queen of the Zolophone; Will and Marion Moore in bits of fine harmony, and clever comedy; Harmon and Har-mon are very entertaining acrobatic com-chians; Pauline Fielding Trio give some-thing different in the line of variety sur-prises. Also a six real feature picture. The feature attraction for Thursday. The feature attraction for Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Strand theater is "Squandered Lives." from "Duke's Son," the well-known novel of Cosmo Hamilton. The story is right up to date, an absorbing tale of the fortunes and misfortunes of a second son, raised in wealth and suddenly cut off from his allowance. It is a love story, too, the leading femining role portraying a young eading feminine role portraying a young ieading feminine role portraying a young woman who had chosen to build up her slender finances through her skill at the card table. When Delamere and Jean are married it is not unnatural, perhaps, that the two continue the same unethical practices they had pursued previously—until the time of insvitable exposure. exposure.

Breed Theatre.

Harry Carey takes the kinks out of a crooked town and wins the girl of girls in "The Freeze Out," his latest Universal photodrama of life in the eld west. The picture is to be the principal attention to the principal attention to the principal attention. Freeze Out" was produced at Universal City and in the picturesque cattle coun-try nearby under the direction of Jack try nearby under the direction of Jack Ford. It is heralded as one of the year's most unusual pictures. Helea Ferguson, who will be remembered as the leading woman in "The Mutiny of the Elsinor," and other successes, plays opposite the star. In addition to Miss Ferguson the cast includes J. Farrell McDonald. This widely-known character actor plays a serio-comic role as the Donaid. This widely-known character actor plays a serio-comic role as the village drunkard. Jank Ford directed "The Freeze Out" from a story by George Hull. The production is said to abound in beautiful scenery, photograph ed by Harry Fawler.

For the second feature Elicen Percy will be seen in the season's most de-liaious acroen farce "Beware of the Bride," which is one continuous shrick of laughter.

CHAPLIN

Rev. Walter E. Lanphear exchanged and Mrs. A. H. Gallup, who were enter-tailord at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Gallup. Some real estate changes at South

Chaplin have taken place recently.
William Sprague has sold his property formerly known as the H. Dwight La phear place to Fielder Neff. Mr. Sprague has bought the farm of Mra. Gertrude Frink formerly known as the George Ross farm. Mrs. Frink is ex-pecting to move to a home at the Willmantle camp ground,

SOUTH GRISWOLD

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Richmond and children of Chicopee, Mass., were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Luther. Mr. and Mrs. Otto A. Anderson, Jr., transacted business in Norwich May 21st. Merton H. Barlett of Jewett City was a recent business caller here.

Miss R. O. Plint of Norwich was calling on local friends Sunday.

A party of local young pople attended a supper at Ekonk Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Comer, Shenan-doah, Va., were both ill, He writes; trouble. My wife had rheumatism in her arms so she could not use them. She has had no trouble since taking Foley Kidney Pills. I don't have to get up at night so which by Miss Mary Curlin who carried them in a huge May basket and entered the room followed by the remainder of the guests, who up to this time had remained in hiding.

Music and dancing followed the surprise, with vocal soles by Misses Helen Leethan and Helen Skiffington, accomptions.

A few years ago two or more fundamed an big steamer whether she needed them or not, just for appearance sake. But this idea has been disposed of and the new liner Scynthia, of 20,600 tons and 600 feet long, is being built with one fundament.

There is no account to the surprise, with vocal soles by Misses Helen Leethan and Helen Skiffington, accomptions.

Tub Skirt Days Are Here Every woman knows the pleasure in owning a comfortable Tub Skirt, made in the latest style and

MURRAY'S BOSTON STORE

Willimantic, Conn.

wanted fabric. Here are trigly tailored, smartly flared models. Their · low prices make it an economical way to dress this summer without being extravagant.

These are priced as low as $2.50 and up to $5.98, including regular and stylish stouts.

THE H. C. MURRAY CO.